

Peller, Lili, E., Freud's Contribution to Language Theory

„Freud's statement (1923) may refer to the complete and distinct clarity which verbal signs endow our experience. In the foregoing studies he had based the need for verbal signs upon two different factors. Verbal signs are ...“

Reprintes from the Psychoanalytic Study of the Child. Volume XXI, 1966

